2. Environnement

Le mot environnement a été introduit dans le langage courant par l'écologiste allemand E. Pfeiffer en 1920. Il désigne l'ensemble des éléments qui entourent un être vivant et qui l'influencent. C'est une notion complexe qui englobe la géologie, la météorologie, la biologie, la chimie, la physique, etc. L'environnement peut être naturel ou artificiel. Il peut également être immobile ou mobile. Par exemple, les arbres sont immobiles mais leur environnement peut être mobile car il peut changer de saison ou de lieu.

Le concept d'environnement est important pour comprendre comment les êtres vivants interagissent avec leur milieu. Par exemple, si nous voulons protéger les ours, nous devons prendre en compte non seulement les ours eux-mêmes, mais aussi leur environnement, qui comprend les animaux qui les entourent, les plantes qui les nourrissent, les éléments physiques de leur habitat, etc. Cela nous aide à comprendre pourquoi certains animaux sont menacés et pourquoi d'autres sont en voie de régression.

The President presided. Rev. Guy Smith, the pastor of the church, gave the invocation, Mr. Morris Lucas sang a solo, and Rev. Smith gave a most pleasing address. He closed his address with a fine tribute to the work done in the world by women.

A carnation was placed as the name of each deceased sister was read by the Secretary and formed a broken wreath upon the altar.

The Elks presented a beautiful bouquet bearing the inscription, "Our Hearts Are With You."

A lovely silk flag was presented to the Boy Scout Troop of the Christian Church. Sister Annette Whitsel, Patriotic Instructor, most graciously presented the flag and the Troop Master in a few well chosen words accepted it.

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT PRESIDENT

*To the Officers and Members of the Department of Indiana,
Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:*

Dear Sisters,—We have reached the twenty-ninth milestone in our journey as an organization, and it gives me great pleasure to welcome you to this Annual Encampment assembled in this city of Connersville, whose citizens have opened wide their gates and hearts to our coming.

We accept their welcome and appreciate their hospitality. Meeting under such pleasant auspices let us enter upon our duties in the spirit of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty.

My work of the past year has been a labor of love. Aiming to discharge the trust faithfully and to the best of my ability, I have endeavored to answer every call made upon me. And I assure you they have not been few. I sometimes feel that my labor has been in vain, as but one new Circle has been added to our roll this year, but we have had an increase in membership in the old Circles, thus holding our own and going forward and not backward. We now have a membership of 2064. The financial standing has increased in the past year. Great sums have been expended for relief and otherwise.

All Circles have responded nobly to the calls made upon them for funds.

The total amount received by Circles for the year was $5,387.97. The total expenditures $2,765.27, leaving a balance in the treasuries of $2,622.70.

I have issued three General Orders, one circular letter and sixteen dispensations. I have given out many Aims and Objects and written numerous letters.

In the interest of uniformity I urge all officers in authority to be diligent in the study of our laws and to follow closely the ritualistic forms and ceremonies. A more frequent exemplification of the ritualistic work is needed.

General Orders are issued for the benefit of the Circles and more attention should be given them. I have noticed that the Circles which give most attention to the official communications and thereby keep in touch with Department and National Officers are the most successful. I would insist that all General Orders be carefully read and obeyed.

The grim reaper has visited many of our homes this year, thirty-seven members having passed beyond. Two of our Past Commanders-in-Chief have heard the call of their great Commander and answered "Here." Commander Somers, who was very ill at the time of our last Convention, passed away June 9, 1921, and Commander Ketcham died very suddenly December 27, 1921.

The department sent a beautiful basket of flowers to each funeral and received letters of thanks from the families.

Sister Lida Manson and I attended the funeral of Commander Ketcham, held at the home in Indianapolis.

It was my purpose and intention to visit every Circle of the Department during my official year, but much to my disappointment, I was unable to do so. Of the thirty-one Circles I inspected, all but eight, and in company with Sister Mattie Miller I visited and installed the officers of McBride Circle, leaving but seven which I have not visited.

I would like very much to tell you of my entertainment by the members of the Circles which I visited but time forbids. I was royally entertained and feasted at each place, and again I want to thank each and everyone for the kindness and hospitality shown me.

I am indebted to Sisters Cassel, Williams, Manson and Miller for their assistance in inspection.

On May 26, shortly after my return from the Convention at Newcastle, I was a guest at a reception, given in my honor, by my own Circle, John A. Logan, No. 7, of Lafayette, and on the following Tuesday night my Secretary, Mrs. Myers, and I were guests of honor at the meeting of General Manson Circle, No. 36, of Crawfordsville.

On June 8, I received a letter from National President Ethel M. Irish, asking me to act as Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements should the National Convention again be held in Indianapolis, and secure headquarters in a good hotel for the National Officers. The following day, June 9, found Mrs. Olive Williams, whom I pressed into service, and myself in Indianapolis, where we made tentative arrangements for the headquarters at the Hotel Lincoln, and from that time until the convening of the Convention in September, I made many trips to Indianapolis.

In August Sister Williams and I were called to meet Sister Irish in Indianapolis and completed the arrangements for the National Convention, which was held in Indianapolis September 25 to 29.

While there I appointed as my assistants the members of A. D. Streight and T. W. Bennett Circles, and for their untiring and faithful services I am greatly indebted. Especially do I feel I must make mention of the beautiful flowers which were furnished Indiana headquarters each day.

On June 22 in response to an invitation from Commander Tyner I attended the commencement exercises of the Soldiers and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown, where every courtesy was shown me and where I met Senior Vice-President Eva Henderson and several other members of the L. of G. A. R. We spent a very delightful day and in the evening we attended a wonderful entertainment given by the children in which the little ones as well as the larger took part.

On July 25 I received an invitation to attend a Union Picnic of the G. A. R. Posts and all allied patriotic societies at Indianapolis, which came too late for my acceptance as did also the one from the Federated Societies, to attend a reception on October 29 in honor of all National Officers residing in Indianapolis. Both of which I very much regretted.

August 23 an invitation came from Commander Tyner to meet the Committee from the G. A. R. at the I. S. S. Home at Lafayette for an inspection visit. I was unable to go, but was ably represented by Sister Marietta Baker of General Manson Circle.

September 25 to 29, Indianapolis had the honor of entertaining for the fifth time, and twice in succession, the National Encampment, and where I had the honor of receiving a beautiful silk flag which had been offered by the National Patriotic Instructor to the Department doing the most patriotic work during the year. Sister Mae Lonberger, Past Department Patriotic Instructor, assisted by the Circle Patriotic Instructors, had been untiring in her efforts to place Indiana in the front in patriotic work, and by so doing won for us this beautiful silk flag.

In October I again had the pleasure of visiting the Home at Knightstown. This time it was "Visiting Day" for all patriotic organizations. There I met the Visiting Committee of the Ladies of the G. A. R., Sisters Cotton and Lyons, and we spent a very pleasant and profitable day together, visiting the schools and inspecting the various departments. After a splendid dinner, to which we all did ample justice, we repaired to the Chapel, where we were entertained with music by the children and talks by the visitors. I remained over night and left early next morning for Rushville, where in the afternoon I inspected Mattox Circle.

October 19, I attended a meeting of the Legislative Council of Women held in Indianapolis. No business of importance was transacted at this meeting except the election of officers for the ensuing year.

On February 28, our National President, Annie M. Michener, visited Indiana, and, upon invitation, was a guest in the home of Sister Lida E. Manson, National Senior Vice-President, from Sunday afternoon until Tuesday morning. On Monday she, with a few others, was entertained at luncheon by your President. In the afternoon a reception was held at the Commerce building, followed by a six o'clock dinner at the I. O. O. F. hall given by General Manson Circle.

At the time of her visit she urged that we make applications for a State Charter, which we did and which we received in a very short time after filing the application. And now the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic of Indiana is an incorporated body, working under a Charter granted by the State of Indiana.

The attorney who did the necessary legal work for us, Mr. Chase Harding, made no charges for his services.

A letter from Ella S. Jones, Past National President and Chairman of the Committee, congratulates us, saying "Indiana is the first to secure a charter." Indiana again to the front.

On Sunday, May 14, 1922, my Secretary and I were guests, by invitation of the Committee, at the dedication of the new Memorial Home at Logansport, a beautiful building purchased and remodeled by the County of Cass at a cost of $250,000. It was furnished by the different patriotic organizations of which Lincoln Circle was one and whose room is elegantly furnished. We were met at the train by Sister Eva Seybold and husband, and after a visit of inspection at the Memorial Home we were taken to the home of Sister Mattie Miller, where a splendid dinner was served. At two o'clock there was a most wonderful parade in which Sister Seybold's beautifully decorated car, in which we rode, was given a prominent place, after which we were escorted to the grandstand and seated with the celebrities. After a most splendid supper at the home of Sister Grant President of Lincoln Circle, we took the seven o'clock train for home, having had a most splendid day.

My acknowledgment and recognition are due to my Secretary, Ella M. Myers, and my Treasurer, Adelia Maxwell, for their faithful and untiring assistance during my term of office. And to all my official family, who have so kindly and willingly rendered me invaluable assistance, I owe a tribute of praise. Words are many time inadequate to express our thoughts.

To Commander Tyner, Adjutant Butler and Assistant Adjutant Ball, I extend my thanks for the courtesies which at all times they have so kindly and graciously tendered, and I feel I would be remiss in my duties if at this time I did not say a word of praise for Mrs. Margaret Adams, Adjutant Ball's kindly and courteous stenographer, who was ever ready to render any assistance in her power.

There have been promises and dreams which were not fulfilled, the failure of which may have been the fault of your President, but if while I have been an occupant of this office, I have added to the good feeling of our Order and have done anything which may lead us on to higher and better things, I will feel that my services have not been in vain.

My work is almost over and as I close this my last report to you, I wish to thank both officers and members for their good will, patience and tolerance and to say with tiny Tim, "God bless us every one."

Loyally yours in F., C. and L.,

JULIA MARTIN McCORKLE,
Department President.

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT SECRETARY

Madam President and Sisters of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:

I esteem it an honor to have been chosen to fill the office of Recording Secretary, during the past year. I have enjoyed fulfilling my duties, which I have tried to do according to ability.

Seven hundred and fifty letters and postal cards carried my signature. This included the General Orders.

Many letters of inquiry could be answered by reading Rules and Regulations.

The Treasurer is sole custodian of all supplies. If the order is sent to the Secretary the postage is double.

I had the pleasure of accompanying the President on her visit of inspection to A. D. Streight Circle. The Red Letter Day of my official year was spent in company with our President at the dedication of the Memorial Home at Logansport, May 14, 1922.

Since closing our last report we are pleased to receive Captain Charles Young Circle, No. 53, just organized at Indianapolis.

The work of our organization is stronger. We have increased in membership and much money has been expended since our last meeting.

One young lady used one hundred and fifty dollars from the Educational Fund, and seventy-five dollars has been returned.

All of our thirty-two circles hold regular meetings and are prospering.

My year's experience leaves me with pleasant memories of the delightful occasions, and the fine women with whom I have come in contact. True sisters I found in the President and Treasurer and with them the greater part of the work is done.

REPORT OF SENIOR VICE-PRESIDENT

New Castle, Ind., May 22, 1922.

To Julia Martin McCorkle, Department President, Officers and Members of the Twenty-ninth Annual Convention of the L. of G. A. R.:

When I was elected to the office of Senior Vice-President of the State Department of the Ladies of the G. A. R., I accepted the office fully appreciating the high honor you conferred upon me.

In a very small way I believe I have contributed to the credit of our Order. I have taken advantage of the opportunities that have been offered, to further advance the interests of the Order.

I was not called upon to represent our President at any time, and while I would have willingly and gladly served to the best of my ability, I am truly glad our President was able at all times to discharge all obligations that came under her care. I have done all in my power to upbuild our own local Order, and to inculcate a harmonious spirit at all of our Circle meetings. I am very proud of my relationship with the Ladies of the G. A. R. and trust that I may have many opportunities for further service.

Yours in F., C. and L.,

EVA HENDERSON,
Senior Vice-President.

you that although there is not so very much required of the office of Junior Vice-President, I have ever stood willing and ready at all times to do anything I might be called on to do and have tried to fill the office with all honor due our beloved Order, the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Yours in F., C. and L.,

FLORENCE B. ROBERTS.

A number of schools have been visited by the Patriotic Instructor. All school children are taught Patriotism. The Flag Salute and many Patriotic songs are memorized. I am proud to say our Flag floats over most all school buildings of today.

Capt. Charles Young Circle, No. 53, was organized April 25, 1922, of which I have no report.

I am sorry to say this shows a decrease of last year's members, which I think is due to a number of Circles not responding with reports.

I wish to thank our Department President and other Department Officers for courtesies they have extended me.

Yours in F., C. and L.,

ANNETTIE WHITSEL,
Department Patriotic Instructor.

REPORT OF REGISTRAR

To the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Indiana:

The work of registration has progressed in a fine manner. Not much has been done in the way of clearing up past records, but the records of 1921 show that 451 names have been registered, all complete but a very few. This part of the work should not be treated lightly, as registration is the nucleus around which the Ladies of the G. A. R. is formed, and to bring it to a state of perfection it required concerted effort of officers and members.

Yours in F., C. and L.,

MELLIE BELL-KITCHEL,
Department Registrar.

REPORT OF DELEGATE-AT-LARGE

To the Officers and Members of the Twenty-ninth Annual Convention:

As Indiana was hostess for the second time in as many years, I, being delegate-at-large to represent the Department of Indiana at the Thirty-fifth National Convention, journeyed to Indianapolis to assist our Department President, Sister Julia McCorkle, to act as hostess for this great National Patriotic body.

Lincoln Hotel was chosen as headquarters for the National officers and the officers of the Department of Indiana.

I arrived at Indianapolis on Sunday, near the noon hour, and went direct to the headquarters, found Sister McCorkle at the Methodist Hospital with a very sick daughter-in-law, but found the room all ready to receive us, having been decorated by one of the circles of the city under the direction of Sister Cora Clapp.

In the evening in company with Sister McCorkle and a few early arrivals we enjoyed a concert given in the hotel.

Monday morning as Sister McCorkle had to return to the hospital, I opened the headquarters at 9 o'clock for registering.

Free transportation on street cars was given to all the delegates and beautiful badges were given to all who registered from Indiana. Indiana was 100 per cent in registration.

Tuesday morning was devoted to registering late arrivals and at 2:30 Memorial Services were held at the Second Presbyterian Church for our departed sister and also National Presidents who had passed away in the last year. They are Sister Etta Lee Toby, Sister Mary T. Hager and Sister Belinda Bailey.

Sister Olive Williams spoke in memory of Sister Toby, Sister Martha VanDusen in memory of Sister Hager and Sister French in memory of Sister Bailey.

The National Chaplain of the G. A. R. was escorted to the platform and spoke words appropriate for the occasion.

A committee from the Auxiliary to the Sons of Veterans was announced and admitted to bring greetings from that order. They also presented the National President, Sister Irish, with a beautiful basket of roses.

National Commander Ketcham and Past National Commander Torrence paid us a visit and gave a few encouraging words to our order.

This meeting was to be followed by a closed session while the National Officers exemplified the ritualistic work, but as it was late the work had to be omitted.

In the evening a fine program was given in the Tomlinson Hall.

Wednesday morning the convention was called to order at 8:30 in the Second Presbyterian Church by the National President, Sister Ethel Irish, of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. Mrs. Mabel Childers of Marion had charge of the music.

The following officers were appointed to serve during convention:

Guards—Cora Dee Drum of Kansas, Jesse Dake of California.

Pages—Lucy Brothers of Minnesota, Nellie Ditmar of Illinois, Nana Shields of Idaho, May Wooley of Florida.

Conductor—Emily Tomkins of New York.

Assistant Conductor—Anna Michener of Pennsylvania.

Press Committee Chairman—Sarah Ehrman of New York.

Other committees to serve were appointed at this time. Pass word was taken. "America" was sung. Scripture lesson and prayer by the National Chaplain, after which the flag was presented, and Hazel Berry, acting as National Patriotic Instructor gave the pledge.

Sister Julia McCorkle, Department President of Indiana, gave the address of welcome. Sister Ella Jones, Past National President, of Pennsylvania, responded.

Sister McCorkle presented the National President with a gavel made of wood from the beech tree under which Gen. Lew Wallace wrote Ben-Hur.

The National Officers, Past National Presidents, Secretaries and Treasurers were now introduced, committees from the Grand Army of the Republic, Woman's Relief Corp, Daughters of Veterans, Sons of Veterans, and Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary were admitted at different times and extended greetings from their organization to the Ladies of the G. A. R.

The Knightstown band was admitted and gave two fine numbers. The President now declared the Thirty-fifth National Convention open for business, the customary exchange of gifts to and between the National Officers followed. The Credential Committee gave their report, it was moved and seconded it be accepted, greetings read from officers not present, roll was called and delegates seated. It was moved and seconded we adjourn until 5 o'clock after the parade.

The parade, headed by sixty mounted police, was very imposing, as this is always the main feature for the public, it was greeted by a great throng of spectators. The departments in their order followed each other as arranged by the committee in charge. There was a liberal display of flags all along the route. There were several bands and fife and drum corps. There were thousands of the warriors of '61-'65 walking, some in uniform and others in civilian suits. Those that could not walk, rode in flag draped automobiles.

Campfire girls and boy scouts were stationed along the line to administer to their every need. They stood along the line with cups of cold water, and all who cared to might be refreshed. As the day was very warm, many were glad and thankful to receive this attention. Ambulances were strewn along the line of march to care for those who fell by the way. Minnesota carried a large flag, which was very beautiful. Wisconsin and Iowa did their best to advertise for the convention of 1922.

The American Legion brought up the rear with their band and men.

The convention was called to order at 5 o'clock. Order of business was read by the Secretary. It was moved and seconded it be adopted. We adjourned to meet promptly at 8 o'clock Thursday morning.

Wednesday evening a reception was given by the National Officers and their aids in the State House. A musical program was given by the orchestra. The Governor and his wife and the National Commander and wife stood at the head of the receiving line.

Thursday morning session was called to order promptly at 8 o'clock. The different committees were sent out with greetings to the other patriotic organizations. The National Senior Vice-President took the chair and the National President, Sister Irish, read her report of the year's work. A rising vote of thanks was given for her untiring work.

Then, following the report of the other National Officers in their turn, a proposal was made by the Woman's Relief Corps that a union be made of all women's organizations affiliated with the Grand Army of the Republic. This was voted down. Sister Irish, the National President, said the Ladies of the G. A. R. are too proud of their name to be merged with any other order. The Secretary's report showed a gain of 3415 members.

California made the largest gain in membership, Indiana ranking third.

At this time the National Patriotic Instructor announced that Indiana would be awarded a silk flag for having done the most patriotic work, the Department Patriotic Instructor having received reports from every circle in the state. Sister McCorkle, Department President, was called to the platform to receive the flag, but in a few words she explained the work had been done by Sister Mae Lonberger, Past Department Patriotic Instructor during the administration of Sister Mattie Miller, Past Department President.

Indiana feels very proud of this work.

Among the guests of the convention were: Mrs. John Black of Washington, D.C., wife of the Past Commander-in-Chief; Dr. and Mrs. George Harding, father and stepmother of President Harding, of Marion, Ohio; and Mrs. August Sexton, of Chicago, a widow of a Past Commander-in-Chief. Mrs. Harding was taken into the order by Sister Genevieve Lucy, National Secretary.

Report of the Shelter House Fund by Sister Ella Jones was made. She reported $497.92 expended for repairs and $58.00 for blankets; $16.88 for a flag for the house.

A luncheon was given in the church dining room by the Department of Indiana for the National Officers, Past National Officers and Delegates to the convention.

Sister Elvira Veasey, National Registrar, gave a splendid report of her untiring work and explained her system of rating the orders. A vote of thanks was given Sister Veasey for her splendid work in this office.

The election of officers began just before noon Thursday, followed by Recommendations and Decisions of the Council. At this time there were 249 votes in the room. As the election of National Officers is always an interesting one, it was carried on very harmoniously. As Indiana lost the vote on National President, Sister Lida Manson of Crawfordsville was unanimously elected as National Senior Vice-President.

It was striking the hour of ten o'clock when Sister Catharine Delacy Roche, Past National President of Pennsylvania, assisted by Sister Ella Jones, Past National President, and Sister Mary H. Howard, Past Department President of Pennsylvania, installed the following elected and appointed officers:

National President—Anna M. Michener, of Pennsylvania.

Senior National President—Lida E. Manson of Indiana.

Junior National President—Lucy Brothers of Minnesota.

National Treasurer—Marybell Ross of Illinois.

National Secretary—Maybell S. Nissen of Pennsylvania.

Chaplain—Amy Clark of Missouri.

National Counselor—Ethel Irish of Wisconsin.

National Council of Administration—Genevieve Lucy of Illinois, Dora

Ginders of Colorado, Sara E. Fox of Texas.

National Patriotic Instructor—Eva J. French of California.

The convention adjourned to meet again in Des Moines, Iowa, in 1922.

Friday morning at nine o'clock, automobiles were in waiting at the State House for visitors who remained over for the day to go sight-seeing about the city and out to Fort Harrison.

Yours in F. C. L.,

EVA SEYBOLD.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE VISITING KNIGHTSTOWN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME

We visited Knightstown Soldiers and Sailors' Orphans' Home on regular State Inspection Day, October, 1922.

Mrs. Cornelia Lyons, of Rushville, and I, being inspectors for the Ladies of the G. A. R., arrived at the home about the same time.

The officers of the Grand Army and its Auxiliaries were represented.

It was a treat to be a member of this inspecting party. The children acted as guides, taking us to the different buildings and departments of the home. Everything was in good condition excepting the painting and repairs that had not been done on account of high cost of labor and material. The dining rooms and kitchens were in good condition in regard to sanitation.

The children looked well nourished and happy.

At noon we watched the children take their places at the tables in the dining-hall. It was a beautiful though sad sight.

We were then invited to the teachers' and officers' dining-room to partake of a bountiful, well-cooked and served meal. The girls of the home waited on the visitors, which they did very quietly and in order, showing good training in the art of serving.

Again, inspecting the home until we were all taken to the chapel.

The "Home Children" entertained the visitors for about one and a half hours with a well executed and good program. The music was inspiring and touching. There was one solo by one of the boys of the home that was exceptionally so. "Home, Sweet Home." There were but few dry eyes when he finished.

Another interesting feature was the Bible drill, which Mrs. Cunback conducted. I am sure many of the adult visitors would not have been able to answer many of the questions which the children answered promptly and correctly.

After the Home Program, the Commander of the G. A. R. had charge, R. H. Tyner.

The Auxiliaries and Allied Organizations of the G. A. R. were each given a place on the program.

At the close of the session, the visitors were invited to the gymnasium, where we were served doughnuts and coffee, by the home girls, while the home band furnished music.

Visiting among the committees, teachers and officers was enjoyed. Supper was announced at 6 p. m.

Every one of the inspectors left the home feeling grateful that Indiana has so well managed an institution to which our orphaned children can be sent for education and care.

May God give the officcres, teachers, and governesses and all who have anything to do with this institution and members, wisdom, love and sympathy, that they may develop men and women who will be able to mingle with the world and become honorable, noble and upright American citizens.

Thanking the President for the pleasure of visiting the Knights-town home, we are

Yours in F., C. and L.,
STELLA E. COTTON, Adair Circle 47, Elwood, Ind.
CORNELIA LYONS, Rushville, Ind.

Initiation shows, 8 ladies, one of whom, Miss Hazel Lucas, was the educational beneficiary last year. After a twelve weeks' Normal course, she is now a teacher in the Montgomery county schools. Three veterans have been obligated, 2 Sisters by transfer. Two have been lost by transfer. One honorable discharge was granted. Three sisters have answered the last call of the grim reaper. Taps have sounded for 4 veterans and flags have been placed on the breasts of 10 other soldiers.

Our financial report shows receipts total, $141.27.

The disbursements included donations to the Knightstown Candy Fund, Southern Memorial Fund, flowers to sick members, and invalid soldiers. One widow was remembered with flowers. Gifts to several schools of flags. Total disbursements, $125.78.

June, 1921, meeting we celebrated Flag Day with special exercises, initiating Mrs. John C. Black, wife of the distinguished General Black, together with the obligation of two of her husband's comrades.

We have had new members at every meeting during the year.

On January 30 we had the pleasure of entertaining our National President, Mrs. Anna M. Michener. A public reception was held in the afternoon, to which all the patriotic organizations of the city were invited. In the receiving line were Mrs. Michener, National President, Mrs. Lida E. Manson, National Senior Vice-President; Mrs. Julia A. McCorkle, Department President; Mrs. Ella M. Myers, Department Secretary, and the local President, Mrs. Wilhite; and Mrs. Collier of Terre Haute.

At 6:30 the Daughters of Rebekah served dinner to 60 members and invited guests, including the Presidents of the several patriotic organizations of the city. At noon Department President, Mrs. McCorkle entertained at luncheon the National Department and local officers. While in Crawfordsville Mrs. Michener was the house guest of Mrs. Lida E. Manson.

January 16, we were invited by our City School Superintendent to assist in the dedication of the new Lincoln School for colored children, at which time we presented a 5 x 8 bunting flag. These children sang at the reception for the National President.

February 22, under the direction of our Patriotic Instructor, who is a teacher in the Tuttle School, very appropriate patriotic exercises were given. The Parent Teacher Association presented a Flag Pole and the Ladies of the G. A. R. a bunting Flag for it.

In March, in coöperation with the W. R. C., our Circle again assisted in the dedication of the new Horace Mann School, presenting a sepia Lincoln picture. A few days later these two organizations again coöperated and have given flowers and shrubs to the school and patrons for beautifying the school grounds and that section of the city. This being the oldest part of the city and was just (the North End) due to the interest of these two organizations and the wonderfully fine group of teachers (one a Lady of the G. A. R.) these people have assumed the care of the Old Town Cemetery on Decoration Day.

Grant's Centennial was celebrated in both the Senior and Junior High Schools according to the request of the National Commander and a very pleasing programme was the result. The teachers of the History classes having charge. In Junior High School the Ladies of the G. A. R. gave 4 prizes, one each to the boy and girl in the 8A and 8B History classes writing the best story on the Boyhood of Grant, and Grant in the Civil War. The prizes given at the exercises were High School rings. The Ladies of the G. A. R. being guests. Over 100 pupils writing stories.

May 17 the Circle was invited to the Mills School, where the Rotary Clubs, some 150 members being present. At the close a very Parent Teachers' Association served luncheon to the Kiwanis and fitting Flag programme was carried out. The Parent Teachers' Association presenting the flagpole and the Ladies of the G. A. R. the flag. Mrs. Elizabeth Eastlack, our first President, making the presentation.

Last, but not least, through the coöperation of the W. R. C. and our able School Superintendent we are to have appropriate exercises in every ward school in the city at 8:30 on the morning of Decoration Day. The Sunshine Society is assisting in the work. The children have been requested to bring a bouquet to school on that morning to be placed on a soldier's grave. We have apportioned the graves to the different schools. Each school is to have a speaker from one or the other organizations. At 9:00 o'clock the children and Sunshine girls are to carry the flowers to the cemeteries and assist in the decorating of the graves. The Mills School, under the direction of Mrs. Marietta Baker and Ladies of the G. A. R., will have charge of the Water Service at the Bridge.

We have a list of applications and a number of fine prospects for the next meeting which is very encouraging, and we trust that the work will continue prospering during the rest of the year as it has in the last few months.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

NELLE LOUISE WILHITE, President.

GOVERNOR MORTON CIRCLE NO. 43

To the Officers and Members of the Twenty-ninth Annual Convention of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Indiana:

Once again we come with the annual report and cordial greetings from Governor Morton Circle.

Total number of Sisters in good standing, 153; Veterans, 18; number initiated since last May, 10. One Sister to be received next meeting. One Sister, Jennie B. Case, has passed into the Great Beyond. Number of deceased comrades, 5.

We placed flags for these comrades, and one for a World War Veteran.

The President and delegates after returning from convention at Newcastle in May, served tea and wafers to the Circle, after the reports were given, with a social hour.

Memorial and Decoration Day were observed in the usual manner.

Decoration Day we served lunch to the Comrades and wives and carried lunch to the sick members.

Flag Day Program open to the public, coöperative picnic supper for members and families, special invitation to members of Boothroyd Post.

During the County Fair in October, the Sisters had a stand serving the best "eats" judging by the crowd that stood waiting to be served each day, realizing for hard work, $93.00.

In September, the members of the Post and Circle held an informal reception for Department Commander Tyner and wife.

We were very glad indeed to have with us Sister Lida Manson, National Senior Vice-President; Julia McCorkle, Department President; Grace Lethe, Department Patriotic Instructor, as our guests with the members of John A. Logan Circle, LaFayette. We had a very pleasant afternoon. In December at the regular Post meeting, Ladies met and presented the Post with a flag; program given and refreshments, of course.

In January, the new officers were installed. A Past President presented to the retiring President her pin; she also received flowers from her friends.

Washington's and Lincoln's Birthdays were observed by special program, members of the Post, our guests, taking part in the program, as this was their day.

The day of our regular meeting March 1, being the birthday of our first President, Harriet B. Gros, and the President's mother, the Circle surprised her with flowers and she in turn surprised the Circle.

We were also presented that day with a framed picture of Governor Oliver P. Morton, by a member of the Circle, Sister Carrie Cox, her father being a special friend of Gov. Morton. They were boys together. We appreciate this gift, and decided at our next meeting to observe Morton afternoon and have as our guests the Post, they taking part on the program also, and thus doing honor to our war Governor. We closed by the reading of "Sheridan's Ride"; birthday of another war hero just passed.

We observed Appomattox Day and also the Centenary of General U. S. Grant, using the program suggested in the General orders. We purchased eight (8) silk flags, one to be presented to the primary class of each Sunday School on Memorial Sunday, May 28. We gave a gift of $25.00 to Boothroyd Post, to be used to purchase bronze markers and flags to be used Decoration Day.

Donations were sent as follows:

GENERAL ORDER NO. 2

Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic
Department Headquarters

Crawfordsville, Ind., October 20, 1921.

1. Almost six months of the official year have passed and as yet no new Circles have been added to our list, but we have increased our membership in the addition of many new members in the old Circles.

2. Although greatly disappointed in not being successful in the election of our candidate for National President, it gives me pleasure to introduce the National Senior Vice-President as from Indiana, Mrs. Lida E. Manson, of Crawfordsville.

3. Indiana was one of two Departments which was 100% in registration. Let us keep Indiana so. Also was third in gain in membership, and "last but not least," won a beautiful silk flag for having done the most patriotic work during the year, the honor of which belongs to Sister Mae Lonberger, Past Department Patriotic Instructor, during the administration of Sister Mattie Miller.

4. The time for inspection is here. Please be ready, and if possible have one or more real candidates. The Department President hopes to do most of the work and Circles can aid her very much by being ready when requested.

5. The first meeting in December is the time for the election of the officers who are to serve you for the coming year. Great care should be used in the selection of these officers, as the success of your Circle depends largely on the officers. The President should be a woman who can and will give a great deal of time to Circle work. The delegates to the Department Convention are also elected at this meeting. Each Circle is entitled to one delegate for every 15 members or a fraction over one-half that number in good standing per report September 30. Note change in number as per change in Constitution and By-Laws.

A Circle having 22 members or less will elect one delegate and one alternate, while a Circle with 23 members will elect two delegates and two alternates. Do not elect your Senior Vice-President as a delegate.

Retiring Secretaries will forward election returns and delegates' credentials to Department Secretary on blanks furnished for that purpose.

6. Memorial services for deceased sisters should be held the last meeting in December.

7. Washington and Lincoln's birthdays and Armistice Day, November 11, should be fittingly observed throughout the Department.

8. Do not forget the donation for the Candy Fund for the Knightstown Home. Let us not forget the "soldiers' and sailors' orphans who come under our fostering care."

Send donations to Department Secretary, but make checks drafts or money orders payable to the Department Treasurer, not later than December 1st.

9. The National Order No. 1 and National password accompany this order.

10. Thanksgiving Day is approaching. Let us give thanks unto Him who has watched over us in the past year, and let us not forget those who have been less fortunate than ourselves.

11. Remember our Educational Fund and give as liberally as possible.

12. In closing I wish to thank all sisters for their kindly words, letters and offers of assistance, especially the members of T. W. Bennett and A. D. Streight Circles of Indianapolis, for their untiring assistance during the strenuous days preceding and at the time of the National convention.

May you all have a Merry Christmas and a bright and happy New Year.
